

How to donate to ELCA World Hunger

Individuals

CONGREGATIONAL GIFTS: If you have a church envelope “check off” or a World Hunger Appeal envelope, write a check to your congregation and place in the designated envelope. Cash contributions can also be placed in these envelopes. If no special envelope or on-line giving designation is available, write the check to your congregation and put ELCA World Hunger in the memo line.

INDIVIDUAL GIFTS: If you would like to make an on-line donation to ELCA World Hunger, go to www.elca.org/hunger/donate.

Congregational Contributions

Congregational treasurers can send checks directly to the Rocky Mountain Synod and indicate that the contribution is for ELCA World Hunger OR include the world hunger amount in the monthly benevolence remittal by clearly marking the contributions to ELCA World Hunger on the synod form. Congregational checks written to ELCA WORLD HUNGER can also be sent directly to Evangelical Lutheran Church in America P.O. Box 1809 Merrifield, VA 22116-8009.

Disaster Response Contributions

For donations to disaster efforts, make checks payable to LUTHERAN DISASTER RESPONSE and mail them to Evangelical Lutheran Church in America P.O. Box 1809 Merrifield, VA 22116-8009. If you want donations to fund a particular disaster response, please indicate that in the memo line of the check. These donations can also be included in monthly benevolence remittals to the Rocky Mountain Synod or by sending a check directly to the Rocky Mountain Synod and indicating the contribution is for Lutheran Disaster Response.
