| Sense of God's call                     | After being invited to consider this service by Ruth Hoffman, talking with colleagues who have served, and my own family and life balance, I am open to serving to support the life of our church in this way. |
| Skills/Experiences                      | A prayerful, grounded and open spirit to help us navigate God's call and healthy boundaries to thrive together.                                                                                                |
