DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT - SEMINARY RELATIONS PACIFIC LUTHERAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY (PLTS)

California Lutheran University and Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary (PLTS) invite applications for the position of Director of Development – Seminary Relations. Reporting to the Vice President of Mission and Identity, the Director is responsible for the cultivation and stewardship of congregational and donor relationships for the development of the seminary and university. The Director advances the university’s mission by building relationships and effectively communicating its mission to donors and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America synods and congregations of the western United States. This position is headquartered on the Thousand Oaks campus of California Lutheran University.

PLTS offers the M.Div. and M.T.S. degrees, as well as a number of certificates. PLTS is a founding member of the Graduate Theological Union (GTU), an ecumenical and interfaith consortium of eight seminaries and nine research centers, with a cross-registration system allowing students to enroll in courses across the consortium. A joint M.A. is offered through the GTU, and PLTS provides core doctoral faculty for the Ph.D. program which is granted through the GTU.
