Briefly describe your sense of God's call into mission and service in the Synod through this office:

As a lifelong Lutheran, I believe I am called to represent my faith and walk with God to share his unconditional love with others.
To treat others with fairness, love, and acceptance of who they are. To love one another as God loves us without judgment.

Describe your skills and experiences that would be an asset to this office:

I am a retired librarian and director of 2 different public libraries. I have very good leadership skills and have advocated for libraries throughout my career.
I have also been a council member of three different churches; Trinity Lutheran, Moorhead, MN, Peace Lutheran, Las Cruces, NM; and Community of Joy, Rio Rancho, NM.
I was a board member of Border Servant Corp, Las Cruces, NM.
I am the current vice president of the NM Lutheran Advocacy group.
